

A PLATFORM FOR DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP

- BRUSH UP
With great rights, come great responsibilities. Remind yourself what good digital citizenship means.
- GAME ON
Help kids learn about digital citizenship through a space-themed game. Blast off!
- READ A STORY
No one is too young for good online behavior. Start early with a picture book for young kids.
- LEARN TO BE LITERATE
Telling the difference between what's true and what's not online can be tough. Learn the basics.
- HAVE A CONVERSATION
Set aside some family time and discuss what digital citizenship means to you.
- MAKE SOME RULES
Set guidelines for your online summer activities and sign a family safety contract.
- CLEAN IT UP
Take some time to clean up your online reputation.
- ASK FOR HELP
Have your kids teach you something about technology. They may know more than you think...
- START A BLOG
Being a good citizen means having a positive online presence. Start building yours this summer.
- TAKE THE PLEDGE
Pledge to be a good digital citizen and to use your online power for good.

Get started at

www.fosi.org/parenting

Family
Online Safety
Institute

GOOD DIGITAL PARENTING